

More than 45,000
Holocaust survivors
live in NYC today

Holocaust survivors
include people who:

- Fled from a Nazi-occupied country
- Hid to escape persecution
- Disguised their Jewish identity
- Were separated from their parents
- Suffered outside Europe (Morocco, Libya, Tunisia)
- Were in a concentration or labor camp or ghetto

Selfhelp

We hold sacred the promise we made in 1936 - to serve as the last surviving relative for survivors of the Holocaust.

Through our care, programs, and broader community, our professional social workers are committed to ensuring the independence and dignity of every survivor.

Our services include:

- Enhanced case management
- Home care and housekeeping
- Assistance with benefits, entitlements, and reparations
- Caregiver support
- Money management
- Guardianship
- Coffee House gatherings
- Holiday celebrations
- Trips
- Discussion groups
- Virtual Senior Center
- Witness Theater, an intergenerational drama therapy program
- Friendly visiting
